Cllr Hickman read out the following report:

"Another year passes and I find myself before you again. I must start by thanking the groups that attending and spoke at the earlier Annual Village Meeting, and I acknowledge the work they do and their contribution to the parish. This year has seen many changes, with the arrival of new councilors, and the departure of old friends and councillors. I am pleased to report that the preschool continues to thrive, and their loan repayments continue to be received promptly.

The village has new housing developments which we initially opposed as instructed by the parishioners. These developments are nearing completion. We should see these as a new opportunity to bring new villagers, new ideas and new friends, creating a larger community with greater resources and help. As the years pass we all get wiser. Once developments are being considered consultation is taking play with relevant party's to find solutions to suit all affected, leading potentially to new parking spaces for the church, and water supplies for the church.

Looking forward I will help new councilors with the experience I have gained, listen to concerns within the village that will guide us to where best to us our resources. This council works only with the people that sit beside me their efforts and time given up are much appreciated, thank you all. And finally this would not be an accurate report if I did not thank the efforts of our clerk Vicky Reed. Over time I have meet many parish and town councilors who all know of our clerk, and she is considered one of the best. I say the best in Dorset, thank you Vicky, and thank you all for coming tonight."
